Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That there's nothing more pathetic than an old maid.

—That some people write love letters they wish they had never mailed.

—That you can not measure greatness in the sight of God by the standards of this world.

—That a West side widow and a well known gentleman created quite a sensation last Sunday evening. Did you see them?

—That Kansas City has more Jack-leg, whisky drinking, lying and immoral preachers than any other town in America; St. Louis not excepted.

—That since Miss Grace Thomas married and went East they have been unable to find anyone to take her place as the fashion plate of Kansas City.

—That the silver cup given by the Love Regalia Company to be contested for by the various commanderies of the Inter-State Conclave is the finest of its kind ever seen here.

—That some people are so thin skinned and at the same time so glibly that they think every item in the "They Say" column refers to them. Well, the Bible says "The guilty fleeeth when none pursueth."

—That Miss Georgia B. Coleman made more beautiful gowns for the Christmas dances last year than any other dressmaker in Kansas City. Get the Coleman trade mark if you want to be up to the minute.

—That if you want to be happy during the holidays send a turkey—a chicken—a sack of flour—a basket of coal—or something of that kind to a needy and deserving family or institution.

—That there is no more public spirited nor upright citizen in this old town, although quiet and unostentatious, than Dr. M. H. Lambright, who always gives to every really deserving charity.
